Life Untwisted Targeting Your Potential With A Fearless Attitude

By Dannye Williamsen

Williamsen Publications. Paperback. Condition: New. 290 pages. Dimensions: 8.5in. x 5.5in. x 0.7in. In trying to live our lives, we inadvertently get things twisted around. We lose sight of what's important for our spiritual growth and what's inconsequential. Of course, nothing is really inconsequential because lessons are there to be learned regardless. However, it is still important for us to prioritize the people, the actions, the feelings, the thoughts in our lives because most of us tend to turn our worlds upside down. We make the least important the most important and vice versa. We carry the residue of experiences around with us that we should have released long ago and let them rule our lives. In order to live a happier life, we must learn how to develop a fearless attitude and how to target our potential. Each of these undertakings involves certain areas of work. To develop a fearless attitude, we must work on building a foundation, healing, and strategies, each of which also include many areas of focus. To target our potential, we must understand the creative process, develop visions for our life and business as well as learn how to create better relationships. This item ships from...
