My dream is to change the way dentistry is taught and practiced. Be afraid of a dentist, be afraid, was written out of necessity. Everyday I am in so much pain, a disabling pain that can be helped. The truth must be heard. I have told dentists numerous times what is the causation of my pain and I was not believed. Consequently, the care that I had received ailed me further. This is a horror story of a survivor of crime that for her criminal injuries compensation had received an ailing dental work. Her attempts to receive help unfolded the fact that dentistry is a moneymaking business that cons people out of their teeth and health. Thirty out of thirty dentists do not know the relationship between jaws and teeth. Currently she is forced to drink her food and is suffering each and every time she closes her mouth. Dentists had failed to diagnose the faults of the bridges, refused to change her dental work and proceeded to ail her further. In her own words, she describes her bridges as a dental attempt on her life. Each and every time I close my mouth the damage is done. I had been holding my teeth in the air for over 12 years. I cannot close my mouth and meet my teeth, I cannot eat a thing. On top of it all, a pin was sticking out of larger bridge. The dentists caused me more damages then the crime and the system, instead of helping me out they locked me out. I had to watch myself get sick unable to get help. It is no short of...
