

When We Dance

By Alanna Lucas

Boroughs Publishing Group, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . The second son of an earl, Nigel Rochefort succeeds at everything he attempts, but burying his family in scandal and breaking up a wedding while seducing the bride is not quite what he had in mind. Nor was finding true love. STEP BY STEP Miss Artemisia Germayne is used to gossip. She is far from the ton's version of an ideal beauty. Worse still, she cannot dance. But when she finds herself in the uncomfortable predicament of abandonment on her wedding day, embarrassed and humiliated she retreats to the country. Nigel Rochefort, second son of the Earl of Monfort, has always taken his good fortune for granted, so when the woman for whom he has a secret tendre is about to marry his friend, the only logical thing to do is break up the wedding. But that scandal is only the start. The bride's sister has also disappeared, and Nigel must first clear his name to assure Artemisia's affections. As he gives chase, many truths are yet to be learned. This is no...
