Through My Eyes is a true reflection of my life story. I really thought that because my mother was a prostitute and addicted to drugs that my life would be destin to be just like hers. I decided that I would make a difference knowing that it would be hard starting off with so many obstacles in my way and having no foundation. This was not going to hold me down. I m a survivor determined to be the best and have the best for me and my kids knowing that i m not a victim of my circumstance. So I figured that if I exposed the dirty secrets of what happen to me it would never be able to hold me down and it may just help some one expose their secrets to.
