By Tamar Wingfield

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Brian is a two hundred year old vampire who is hiding out from his duties. He s been a part of the vampire government for too long and now that his time in office is over he s only looking for a break from all of the noise and complaints the undead badger him with. Brian decided to head to an old cabin in Maine that his family once owned. After the years in Rome he s ready for the peace and silence of a snowy winter. Finally, he can be at peace with himself. Christine has always been a dreamer. She is introverted by nature and had always preferred sitting at home with a cup of tea and a good book to being a social butterfly. Now that she d graduated with an MFA (masters of fine arts) she s ready to pen her first ever novel. Thriving on being alone she took a job house sitting a log cabin in upstate Maine. A beautiful home in the middle of pristine white snow is exactly what she needs to...
