Excerpt from The City of Chicago: A Study of the Great Immoralities The sale of dissipation is not only a great business it is among the few greatest businesses in Chicago. The leading branch of it as you would naturally expect of the savage European stock from which we sprang - is the sale of alcoholic liquor. In the year 1906 the receipts in the retail liquor trade in Chicago were over they were probably about 351 There was one retail interest greater than this. The sellers of food, - grocers and meat men, - had gross receipts of, perhaps, double these figures. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
