Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . What does clinical hypnosis that cured a 12-year old s bed wetting and the wisdom of a Persian Holy Man s book have to do with major league pitching? A phenomenal rookie pitcher and an over-the-hill bullpen catcher invent weasel ball which employs the power of suggestion rather than common trash talk to affect opposing hitters. The pitcher, a used bookstore junkie and student of ancient wisdom, carries a mysterious book in his hip pocket. The result is wisdom ball which influences players, fans and umpires alike. You ve never read anything like it . . . anywhere! The Manhattan Monarchs, whose owner was integrity challenged, were the worst team in baseball, at preseason odds of 100-1 to win the World Series. In the 9th inning of the 7th game of the World Series, the Miracle Monarchs were one pitch away from winning or losing THE WAGER. A single umpire s call would make the difference between a ten million dollar payoff for the veterans (and owner) vs. jail cell for the owner ($0 for veterans). Win-Win or Lose-Lose. What happened in the ninth inning depends upon whose story you heard and whose story you believe. The pitcher, the catcher, the hitter, the owner, the umpire, a sportswriter, a disabled veteran, a gambler, even the proprietor of the bookstore around the corner, all have a story to tell. Each will tell you what he saw and heard. There is mystery, humor, surprise, baseball insight, drama, and unparalleled you-are-there suspense as each storyteller tells you what really happened. And,...
