Trudel Group, 2017. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Durham had been a disaster. Everyone on Raven s team had been seriously wounded, and now Josie, the woman he loves and a major American asset due to her paranormal abilities, is in a drug-induced stupor at a medical facility. Wracked with guilt over his inability to have adequately anticipated and prepared for the danger, Raven is recuperating at the remote private estate in California known by the resident staff as the Ranch. However, when his boss, Dr. Goldfarb, wants him to extract Josie quickly and quietly from her hospital, he doesn t have to be asked twice. Although he doesn t know it at the time, the mission will be the crucial first step Raven will need to take to redeem himself in his own eyes. Raven s path will not be an easy one, though. Forces are at work that seek both to eliminate Josie as well as the President of the United States. The first attempt on the President s life has left him dying from poisonous mushrooms, a situation that is being kept top secret. After meeting with him, Raven barely makes it on time to help foil the plot against Josie, an encounter that leaves three dead bodies in its wake. To keep Josie safe, save the President, and eliminate an ominous threat that Josie can see on the horizon called the Abyss, Raven and his allies will have to circumvent politics and skirt the law in a war against Hamas kill teams, Muslim infiltrators, Black Panthers, and powerful, highly connected individuals who are experts at pulling the strings of terror. In this riveting and suspenseful sequel to Raven s Run, the author not only reunites the protagonists...
