Ashley Morgen is a twenty-two year old party girl on the verge of graduating college. When four years goes by in a blur of drunken nights and causal flings, she soon realizes her one mode of escape from old memories is coming to a close. But when a mysterious blue-eyed beauty moves in across the hall and changes her perspective, she starts to wonder if escaping her past is the answer.or embracing it is. He was the boy that knew all too well about hiding demons. Ezra Masters is literally the boy next door. After moving away from the demons that haunted his past, he finds himself face to face with a green-eyed party girl who reminds him all too well of the person he left behind. Determined to help her find a way to happiness, he realizes the only true way they d both escape is by being together.
