Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from School Architecture and School Improvement: From the Twenty-Third Biennial Report Ladies and gentlemen, in your hands lie the purse strings of the public schools in all this great State. Therefore, to you must be addressed any plea for the future improvement of our school property, as a whole. You and your successors are the only ones who can translate good ideas into good schoolhouses and beautiful school grounds as time goes on. If I had you all together, so that I could talk to you face to face, I should try to say very earnestly something like this: My friends, it is almost as cheap to build a beautiful schoolhouse as an ugly one - if we know how. California, like old Greece, is a land of beautiful things. Sun and sea and mountain, streams and trees and flowers conspire to make it a place delightful to mankind, inspiring to the painter, the poet, the musician, attractive to all the world. This beauty is a practical asset of vast importance to the State. Our California...
