Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Something is going wrong with people's attitudes. People are less considerate of and polite to each other. Neighbourliness is difficult to find. People are less respectful of authority. The electorate is failing to turn-out on polling days and the reported incidence of mental health issues, especially depression and anxiety, is increasing. I suggest that this is all due to a single common cause: namely the loss of values, vision and purpose which has resulted from the substitution of subjective-relativism for objective-realism at the heart of our culture. This has been a long drawn-out process. In the academic sphere, it started with Aristotle's Materialism; continued through the Renaissance, Reformation and Enlightenment; gathered pace as Rationalist Empiricism, and culminated in Nietzsche's Existentialism. The change of orientation has gradually percolated into general society over the years, causing havoc wherever it has taken root. More recently, this process has been aided by the rise of state sponsored and controlled education, which was hijacked by proponents of subjective-relativism in the 1960s. Before training to be a teacher, I...
