

The Colour of My Mind: The Development of a Philosophy for Living (Paperback)

By Danny Williams

Createspace, United States, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. This book charts the development of the author's mind and his meandering thoughts on a large variety of subjects over an 8 year period, but seeded possibly as much as seventeen years earlier in his teenage years. The first signs that a particular set of thought patterns were starting to break through occurred in the summer of 2003 when he was introduced to an unorthodox method of Eastern philosophical teachings in a Martial Arts school that he had joined a year before. It was at this time that he felt the need to start a private record of his intellectual self-exploration and development. Almost by accident this focussed his efforts in such a way that led to a completely unexpected in the summer of 2010. Initially the author's ponderings were centred around popular scientific facts, figures and new discoveries. This later expanded to include the genre of Eastern philosophy, then further developed into an inquisitive method of thought on a great deal of subject areas with hypotheses being put forward for later consideration. After the personal breakthrough in understanding in...
